

Day 1

Learning Objective

- Combining complete sentences using the word and

Follow the model to combine each pair of sentences below.

Example: Squeaky ran in the track meet. Her brother Raymond watched her.

Squeaky ran in the track meet, and her brother Raymond watched her.

1. The storm clouds are gathering. It looks like rain.
2. Jorge is the quarterback on the football team. Sammy is the pitcher on the baseball team.

Day 2

Learning Objective

- Combining complete sentences using the word but

Follow the model to combine each pair of sentences below.

Example: Jimmy Valentine served his prison term. He started committing robberies again.

Jimmy Valentine served his prison term, but he started committing robberies again.

1. Monica liked to swim in the ocean. Tara liked to swim in a pool.
2. Some people like to ride the bus. Some people only ride the train.

Day 3

Learning Objective

- Combining complete sentences using the word or

Follow the model to combine each pair of sentences below.

Example: Don Anselmo can sell his land for the first price he named. He can charge more.

Don Anselmo can sell his land for the first price he named, or he can charge more.

1. Is Paul walking to school? Is he taking the bus?
2. Can Takesha make the shot? Should she get closer to the basket?